Why this is being presented today:

Proposed changes to the 2025 Ancillary Services Methodology were considered at the September 19, 2024 TAC Meeting.

This is the resulting Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) endorsement on the 2025 Ancillary Services Methodology, for which the R&M Committee is expected to vote on a recommendation to the Board:

- TAC voted to endorse the 2025 Ancillary Service Methodology as presented by ERCOT. There was one opposing votes from the Independent Generator (Calpine) Market Segment; and two abstentions from the Independent Generator (Jupiter) and Independent Power Marketer (Morgan Stanley) Market Segments.
